Our work

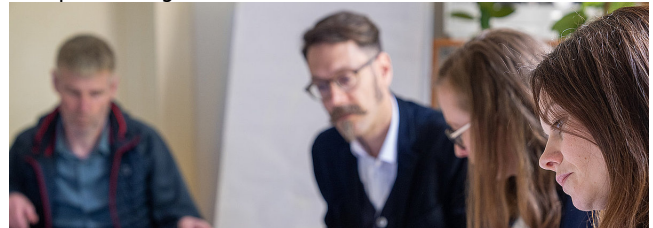

About us

The dfi is an independent organization devoted to research on and documentation of contemporary France and Franco-German relations within the European context

Topics

Franco-German relations are at the heart of our work, with a focus on the political, economic and societal developments in both countries against the backdrop of European integration

Publications

The dfi, which is an independent research institute, addresses political, economic and social issues. It contributes to the academic debate through its own series, journal articles and book publications.

Services

The dfi provides a range of services to public and private organizations, businesses and individuals working in a Franco-German context or interested in current developments in French politics, economics and society.

Target groups

Our services are designed for various target groups, including teachers, students, civil society but also politics and administration.

Events

The dfi regularly organizes conferences, lectures, study trips and training sessions. Target groups are representatives from politics, business and administration, academics, journalists, teachers, students and of course civil society and the interested public, too.
